

Peter Harrison Centre
for Disability Sport

PHC Associate

Dr Nadine Geddes

Research Associate at the Institute of Youth Sport, School of Sport & Exercise Sciences, at Loughborough University. Previously a Research Associate at the Peter Harrison Centre for Disability Sport

Contact Details:

Email: N.L.Geddes@lboro.ac.uk
Tel: 01509 226308

Qualifications:

Nadine completed her PhD in 2009. The title of her thesis was 'Approaches to Providing Disability and Employment Information'.

Nadine previously gained an MSc. in Ergonomics from Loughborough University in 2003 and a Bachelors of Physical Education from the University of New Brunswick, Canada in 1995.

Current Research Interests:

Most research projects have centred around the study of disability and employment, mainly looking at how to make workplace adjustments to accommodate people with disabilities.

Previous Research & Experience:

Working on various projects within the field of disability in sport such as; TOP Sportsability and Elements which are both programmes that aim to increase the inclusion of students with special needs into physical activities.

Membership of Professional Bodies/Associations:

Ergonomics Society – Graduate Member

Published Papers & Articles etc:

Geddes, N and Haines, V. (2005) 'AbilityMatch - Building a Disability Management System', in Proceedings of 2005 Ergonomics Society Annual Conference, April 5-7, University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield Ergonomics.
